

SHATFORD CENTRE

Friday, September 23rd

In Love with the Mystery

7:30PM

Shatford Centre

760 Main Street, Penticton, B.C.

Join Ann and Paul for an intimate evening of stories, improvised music and readings from Ann's inspirational new book and CD

Ann Mortifee is internationally recognized as one of Canada's most unique and passionate performing artists. Her CDs, musicals, ballets, one-woman shows, workshops and keynote addresses have earned her the prestigious Order of Canada. A world traveler, Ann has worked with the dying, studied with the head Sangoma of the Zulu nation, and served in Calcutta with Mother Teresa's Sisters of Mercy. Ann's latest book, In Love With The Mystery, speaks directly to our hearts and awakens us to our own soul.

Paul Horn's illustrious career has spanned five decades, 50 albums, five Grammy nominations. He has studied in the Himalayas, taught meditation and played his golden flute for audiences across the world, known as "The Father of New Age Music" for his seminal album, Inside the Taj Mahal.

ANN MORTIFEE & PAUL HORN

COMING TO PENTICTON- Two Days Only

September 23rd and 24th

Saturday September 24th Sacred Union

FULL DAY WORKSHOP 10:00am – 4:30pm

A lively workshop featuring Ann Mortifee & Paul Horn Jazz legend, Paul Horn, and his wife, Canadian arts and culture icon, Ann Mortifee, bring together their unique and shared life experiences.

You will love this day and come away with:

- Tools to integrate mind, body, emotion and spirit
- The ability to use your physical body as an ally in staying grounded in the present moment

Through music, story, improvisation and meditation, you will find yourself expanded and joyous.

Fee: $100 ~ includes ticket to Friday event and Saturday lunch

TICKETS for FRIDAY EVENING: $10

phone: 250-770-7668 or at the door

REGISTER FOR SATURDAY WORKSHOP:

Course # Au-8100

<http://www.osarts.com/courses/registration.php> or

phone: 250-770-7668